

“Advance in Ag” Scholarship Guidelines

MARSHALL-PUTNAM FARM BUREAU FOUNDATION

The Marshall-Putnam Farm Bureau Foundation provides a TBD # of $1,500 scholarships for high school seniors who are continuing their education in an agriculture-related field. Applicants do not need to be members of the Marshall-Putnam Farm Bureau. These scholarships are intended to help defray tuition, fees, books and other necessary expenses. These scholarships may be used in addition to any other financial assistance the student may receive. Applicants, if eligible, can also apply for the Marshall-Putnam Farm Bureau Scholarship.

Eligibility

To apply for this scholarship, an applicant must:

- be a graduating high school senior.
- have been a resident of Marshall or Putnam County for the full 2 years immediately prior to the date of high school graduation.
- be enrolled in a college or a technical/trade school.
- be pursuing a career in an agricultural field or a field useful to agriculture, such as, but not limited to, electrician, welder, diesel mechanic, etc.

How to Apply

Online Application: www.mpfarmbureau.org/scholarships. The application must be completed in its entirety by the deadline date of March 15th of the student’s senior year.

Selection of Recipients

- Criteria include interest in agriculture, application responses and potential for successful completion of course of study.

Scholarship Conditions

If awarded a scholarship, a recipient must:

- provide proof of enrollment in a college or a technical/trade school.
- use scholarship subject to these guidelines.

Payment of Scholarship and Coverage

- Payment of $1,500 will be made after proof of enrollment in a college or a technical/trade school has been received by the Marshall-Putnam Farm Bureau office.
- Scholarships cannot be used for summer sessions.

The Scholarship Committee reserves the right to make judgements on cases not covered in the above guidelines.
